

Sally is a mature student who has studied and worked in the Interior Design industry and decided she wanted a new direction; as a result she came to Solihull College & University Centre to study towards a BA (Hons) Fine Art degree. Sally has always had an interest in Fine Art and has been described as an 'all-round creative person.' She has completed the first year of her degree and is set to complete her second year. Sally is also on the Quality and Standards board at the College as a lead student as well as a course representative for Fine Art. Sally enjoys voicing students' opinions and helping with any worries and concerns students may have. Post qualification, Sally is keen to progress into the teaching industry.
