Policy: Policy For Organising Events With External Speakers

Legal Context: the Prevent Duty contained within Section 26 of the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015.

POLICY FOR ORGANISING EVENTS WITH EXTERNAL SPEAKERS

1. Introduction

Solihull College is committed to creating an environment where everyone is treated with dignity and respect and where diversity is valued. This policy outlines the procedures relating to events involving the use of external speakers regardless of who is organising these events. This applies, therefore, to those hiring our premises as well as our own employees.

It also details our approach to ensuring that we are protecting both staff and students and the reputation of Solihull College whilst following the legislation that we're responsible for upholding. This policy is written with reference to the Prevent Duty contained within Section 26 of the Counter Terrorism and Security Act 2015. The Duty states that specified authorities including Further Education Colleges, in the exercise of their functions, must have "due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism".

2. Objectives

- To provide an environment where freedom of expression and speech are protected whilst balanced with the need to ensure that our community is free from harm and that incitement to hatred is never acceptable.
- To provide a supportive, inclusive and safe space for students
- To provide clearly defined and effective procedures to ensure that the law is upheld.
- To collaborate with others to reach sound, evidenced judgments about proposed external speakers ensuring that the College can meet their legal obligations
- To encourage and provide a balance of opinion at any academic discussion or debate
- To communicate to all members, volunteers, staff and visitors, that it is our mutual responsibility to comply with equality and safeguarding policy and that both Solihull College and the individual can be held liable if they contravene the law.
- To provide clear instructions for organising an event with external contribution

3. Freedom of speech and expression

3.1. Freedom of expression and speech are basic human rights that are protected by law. Freedom of speech and freedom of expression are not absolute freedoms but freedoms within the law. Universities and Colleges have a history of being open to debate and ideas, with students actively involved in pushing the limits of freedom of expression. 'Academic freedom' is a term used to describe the law that allows for open and honest debate in an academic context.

3.2. However, we have a duty to ensure the safety and welfare of our staff, students and communities. The freedom to express views needs to be balanced with the need to secure freedom from harm for students and communities. We want all of our events, activities and initiatives to be safe, without risk to the College, and within the law.

3.3. If an external speaker or their topic of discussion has the potential to go against our conditions for a safe event, we are committed to working together with event organisers and in some cases, external speakers themselves, to make sure that we reach a judgement that is reasonable, informed and within the law.

4. External speakers and their responsibilities

4.1. An external speaker, guest speaker or visitor is used to describe any individual or organisation who is not a student or staff member of Solihull College and who has been invited to speak to students and/or staff, or delegates attending a conference in our conference centre facility or in another college room. This includes any individual who is a student or staff member from another institution. It also includes the main contact from any external venue hire client who is paying to use College facilities.

4.2. An event is any event, presentation, visit, activity or initiative organised by a student group/society, individual or staff member that is being held on Solihull College premises or where Solihull College is being represented by a stand on non-College premises e.g. at an exhibition, school event or fair. It includes events where external speakers are streamed live into an event or a pre-recorded film is shown. It also includes activity being held on Solihull College premises but organized by external venue hire clients

4.3. All speakers or visitors should be made aware by the person or group arranging the event (by referring visitors to this policy on the College website)) that they have a responsibility to abide by the law and the College's policies including that they:-

- Must not advocate or incite hatred, violence or call for the breaking of the law
- Are not permitted to encourage, glorify or promote any acts of terrorism including individuals, groups or organisations that support such acts
- Must not spread hatred and intolerance in the community and thus aid in disrupting social and community harmony
- Must be mindful of the risk of causing offence to or seek to avoid insulting other faiths or groups, within a framework of positive debate and challenge
- Are not permitted to raise or gather funds for any external organisation or cause without express permission of the College (available from Director of Student Services and Equality or the Vice Principal HR & Student Services).

5. Guidance for Solihull College staff and students organising an event with an external speaker or venue hire client

5.1. Faculty Managers or the relevant support service manager must be informed of any events that involve external speakers through this procedure. No event involving any external speakers may be publicised or considered confirmed until the speaker has been cleared through the procedure detailed in this policy. This includes advertisement through any social media platform.

5.2. Solihull College reserves the right to cancel, prohibit or delay any event with an external speaker if the policy is not followed or if health, safety and security criteria cannot be met.

5.3. Any room booking/ event organisation with an external speaker involved must be made no later than 14 days before the date of the event. This is to allow for the organizer to have made adequate safeguarding checks as well as allowing time for alterations to the event if necessary. Any request made outside of this timeframe will be rejected unless there are extreme extenuating circumstances.

5.4. The individual/group organising an external speaker should conduct brief research into the proposed speaker. If in doubt as to the suitability of a speaker, they should refer the decision to the Director of Student Services and Equality or the Vice Principal HR & Student Services. Reasons for doubt could be (but are not restricted to) the following: - any person or group on/or linked to the UK Government list of proscribed terror organisations <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/proscribed-terror-groups-or-organisations--2> ; talks by organisations generally considered to be extremist; a speaker who is known to have spoken previously at another institution on a topic that has caused fear or intimidation of students or staff; a speaker accepted in mainstream as being highly controversial; a link or links to any person or group that has been connected with any controversy of a negative or positive nature; a speaker who has significant profile and attracts a following that could create crowd control and health and safety issues; a speaker from a political party during an election purdah.

5.5. In the event of referral, one of the following decisions will be made:-

- To not permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead
- To not permit the external speaker to attend the event (if it is a wider event)
- To fully permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead unrestricted
- To permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead on the basis of regulatory steps designed to reduce risk. These may include observation; independent filming; the inclusion of opportunities to debate or challenge the view being held

5.6. In making recommendations, a Faculty Manager, or support service manager may consult on a wider basis with the College's Safeguarding Panel and risk will be assessed on the following basis:

1. The potential for any decision to limit freedom of speech
2. The potential for the event going ahead to cause reputation risk to the College
3. The potential for the speaker's presence on site to cause fear or alarm to students or members of staff and/or to give rise to breach of peace

5.7 The Request for Prior Approval for an External/ Guest Speaker (Appendix 1) should be completed and forwarded to the relevant Manager no later than 14 days before the planned event. The completed form should be forwarded to PA to the Vice Principal HR & Student Services for logging on the Central Record.

5.8 Managers are responsible for ensuring that their staff team and students are aware of and support the policy.

6. Additional Guidance for Venue Hire Clients organising an event with external speakers

6.1. The Conference Centre Coordinator or the Vice Principal Finance, Facilities & IT, if hire is of rooms outside those of the Conference Centre, will make external venue hire clients aware of this policy and request details of any external speakers, presentations etc that they are bringing in. This information should be provided no later than 14 days before the booking goes ahead.

6.2. Solihull College reserves the right to cancel, prohibit or delay any venue hire booking with external speakers if the policy is not followed, requested information not produced or if health, safety and security criteria cannot be met.

6.3. If in doubt as to the suitability of speakers, the Conference Centre Coordinator or Vice Principal Finance, Facilities & IT should refer the decision to the Director of Student Services and Equality or the Vice Principal HR & Student Services. Reasons may be as outlined in 5.4.

6.4. In the event of referral, one of the following decisions will be made:

- To not permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead
- To not permit the external speaker to attend the event (if it is a wider event)
- To fully permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead unrestricted
- To permit the event with the external speaker to go ahead on the basis of regulatory steps designed to reduce risk. These may include observation; independent filming; the inclusion of opportunities to debate or challenge the view being held

EXPECTATIONS AND GUIDELINES FOR EXTERNAL/ GUEST SPEAKERS

Thank you for agreeing to be a guest speaker at Solihull College, and offering to speak to our staff and/or our students enrolled at the College.

As a guest of the College, we will ensure that when you attend the College premises, and sign in at the main reception of the College, that a representative of Solihull College is present to meet with you at reception and accompany you during your presentation and attendance at Solihull College. If at any point during your time at the College, a College representative has not accompanied you, we ask that you contact Hilary Baird, Director Student at the College on 0121 678 7138 or Hilary.baird@solihull.ac.uk

In accordance with our policies and procedures, we also ask that in the event that a Solihull College student contacts you following your presentation, that you notify Hilary Baird at the College immediately. Our students are aware that they are not permitted to give guest speakers their names, addresses or home numbers, and to do so would be a breach of the College's policies.

In order to comply with College policies and procedure, any materials and presentations given to our students must not seek to discriminate against any culture, race, gender, disability, sexual orientation, nationality, or religion, and must be appropriate to the age and maturity level of the student audience. In addition, external/guest speakers:

- Must not advocate or incite hatred, violence or call for the breaking of the law
- Are not permitted to encourage, glorify or promote any acts of terrorism including individuals, groups or organisations that support such acts
- Must not spread hatred and intolerance in the community and thus aid in disrupting social and community harmony
- Must be mindful of the risk of causing offence to or seek to avoid insulting other faiths or groups, within a framework of positive debate and challenge

If you have any concerns or queries, please do not hesitate to contact Hilary Baird, Director Student & Equality, who will be more than happy to answer your queries and/or any concerns that you may have.

Solihull College will not, in any circumstances, be liable to guest speakers or to any third party for any loss, damage, cost or other liability which occurs as a result of, or in connection with external/guest speakers providing external/guest speaking services to students at Solihull College. Any liability which results from fraud or from death or personal injury caused by negligence is excluded.
