Higher Education Admissions Appeal Procedure

1. Introduction

1.1. Solihull College & University Centre and Stratford-upon-Avon College (hereafter referred to as the College) welcomes applications from individuals with the potential to succeed in higher education. Our commitment to equal opportunities ensures that all applicants are treated solely on the basis of their merits, abilities and potential. We recognise, however, that there may be occasions when applicants feel they have cause for complaint.

1.2. Therefore, the purpose of the Higher Education Admissions Appeal Procedure is to provide an opportunity for applicants to raise matters of concern without risk of disadvantage and for the College to resolve as quickly and fairly as possible complaints about the admissions process.

2. Principles

2.1. The principles which underpin the Admissions Complaints Procedure are that:

- the process should be fair, effective, timely and comprehensible with complaints being resolved as quickly as possible and in a reasonable manner;
- any investigations undertaken as part of the Admissions Appeals Procedure;
- the applicant and relevant members of staff will be informed of the outcome of the appeal;
- appropriate action will be taken to improve the College's procedures where the outcome of a complaint suggests that improvement is necessary.

Appeals submitted more than 10 working days after the original decision which is the subject of the appeal will not normally be considered.

If it is not possible to complete the investigation within 15 working days, the applicant will be advised in writing of the reasons for this and given a date by which it is expected that the investigation will be completed.

3.5. The Assistant Principal/Head of school may request additional information from the applicant or relevant staff if this is deemed appropriate and, if necessary, may convene a meeting of the College's Senior Management Team and/or the appealing applicant to discuss the appeal.

3.6. An appeal hearing is held and the Assistant Principal/Head of school will find either:

- that there are grounds for further consideration and the application is to be reconsidered accordingly;

or

- that there are no grounds for taking the matter further. At which point The Higher Education Administration Team are informed, Partner Institutions are informed (if applicable) the Admissions Appeal record is updated and the applicant is informed.
